COMMERCIAL REAL ESTATE (IN DISTRESS): WHERE ARE WE NOW?

Attorneys with the law firm of Whiteman Osterman & Hanna LLP, the Capital District's largest law firm with over 90 attorneys, will review Governor Andrew Cuomo's executive orders restricting commercial real estate evictions and foreclosures, and provide guidance with respect to potential alternatives to judicial action. Among other topics, the seminar will include a discussion of commercial lease amendments, loan amendments, work-outs, and pre-litigation strategy. Join us on your lunch hour or just take a break to enjoy an informative and interactive discussion.
